Freddie Mac Expands LTV Ratios for Super Conforming Mortgages

Freddie Mac is announcing changes to its Single-Family Seller/Service Guide which the company says will provide expanded homeownership opportunities which the company says will provide expanded homeownership opportunities for some borrowers, especially those in designated high-cost areas. The changes, it says, will also streamline the underwriting process.

The principal change, effective for mortgages with settlement dates on or after March 28, will revise loan-to-value requirements (LTV), total LTV (TLTV) and Home Equity Lines of Credit LTV (HLTV) ratios for super conforming mortgages and 1-unit investment property mortgages.

The three LTV measures above will be expanded for super conforming mortgages to align with those ratios subject to base conforming loan limits. The required minimum Indicator Scores for Manually Underwritten super conforming mortgages will also be aligned with those subject to base loan limits.

Effective for Settlement Dates on or after March 28, 2016

For mortgages secured by 1-unit investment properties the eligible LTV ratios will be aligned for purchase mortgages and no-cash-out refinances. The company said these expanded ratios will provide borrowers with greater ability to refinance into improved rate and term mortgages without the need to establish additional equity.

A second change to the Guide affects master or blanket insurance policies on condominium projects and planned unit developments (PUD). The revision will prohibit the sale of mortgages on such properties with an insurance policy that combines coverages for multiple unaffiliated projects or PUDs. The change also alters terms of required insurance coverage for employee dishonesty.

I will remain in touch throughout the process and continue to follow up with you after closing. My goal is to wow you and turn you into clients for life. I want you to be so impressed that throughout and after the process you share my information with your friends, family, neighbors and co-workers who may value from my services.
