Applications Continue Stabilizing as Rates Recover

Mortgage applications continue to decompress from the two-week holiday moratorium as well as from the usual holiday business interruptions, so it is hard to know where volumes really stand. The Mortgage Bankers Association's (MBA's) current Market Composite Index, covering the week ended January 6, 2017, includes an adjustment to account for the New Year's Day holiday, while the previous week's results were adjusted for the Christmas holiday.

The composite shows applications increasing 5.8 percent from the week ended December 30 on a seasonally adjusted basis and by 42 percent unadjusted. The Refinance Index was up 4 percent from the previous week and the refinancing share of applications ticked down to 51.2 percent from 52.2 percent.

The seasonally adjusted Purchase Index increased 6 percent while unadjusted it was up 45 percent. Compared to the same week in 2016 there was a loss of 18 percent.

Interest rates for fixed-rate mortgages (FRM) were down on both a contract and an effective basis. Conforming 30-year FRM (those with loan balances under $417,000) had an average contract rate of 4.32 percent with 0.41 point, decreasing from 4.39 percent with 0.43 point a week earlier. The jumbo version, loans with balances greater than $417,000, posted a rate that was 10 basis point below that of a week earlier, 4.27 percent. Points decreased from 0.44 to 0.31.

The contract rate for 30-year FRM backed by the FHA fell from 4.22 percent to 4.08 percent. Points increased to 0.35 from 0.34.
