Mortgage Apps Managed to Improve Despite Rate Spike

Mortgage activity increased slightly during the week ended February 1. The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) says its Market Composite index, a measure of application volume, rose a modest 0.7 percent on a seasonally adjusted basis, and was up 4.0 percent unadjusted. Activity has been strong since the first of the year; the index has posted three weekly gains averaging 5.63 percent, offset by a 2.6 percent decline during the week ended January 26.

The Refinance Index gained 1 percent compared to the previous week and the seasonally adjusted Purchase Index was unchanged. The unadjusted Purchase Index was 7 percent higher week-over-week and 8 percent above its level during the same week in 2017.

As interest rates rise, the composition of applications continues to gradually change. The refinance share of total applications declined for the fourth consecutive week. It is at the lowest level since last July at 46.4 percent, down from 47.8 percent the week before. The share of applications that were for adjustable rate mortgages (ARMs) increased to 6.1 percent of total applications after hitting a 14-month low of 5.0 percent during the week ended January 5.

FHA loans had a 10.4 percent share of the applications submitted during the week, down from 10.7 percent the previous week and the USDA portion dipped to 0.7 percent from 0.8 percent. The VA share was unchanged at 10.1 percent.

Significant increases in interest rates during the week affected both contract and effective quotes for fixed rate mortgage products. The average contract interest rate for 30-year fixed-rate mortgages (FRM) with conforming loan balances of $453,100 or less reached the highest level since April 2014, 4.50 percent, up from 4.41 percent a week earlier. Points increased to 0.57 from 0.56.
